Welcome to the official Open Journal System (OJS) of MD Publisher, a dedicated academic publishing platform committed to disseminating empirical research, theoretical studies, and critical ideas to a global audience.

As a tangible manifestation of the pillars of intellectualism and humanity, MD Publisher facilitates open-access scientific publications to foster inclusive knowledge advancement with a real-world impact. Our platform hosts a diverse array of interdisciplinary scientific journals, all operating under a strict double-blind peer-review process and rigorous academic ethics.

Our Journal Portfolio Currently, MD Publisher manages national and international periodic publications covering a broad spectrum of scholarly fields, including:

- Future in Social Science: An interdisciplinary academic journal dedicated to advancing the theoretical and practical understanding of social phenomena. The journal focuses exclusively on the social sciences (Economics, Business, Law, Politics, Education, Humanities, and Geography) with a strong emphasis on solid empirical research methodologies.
- Journal Islamic Economic and Halal Industry: A quarterly publication designed to bridge the gap between theoretical frameworks and practical applications in the contemporary halal economy. It covers Islamic finance, halal supply chains, Muslim-friendly tourism, and Islamic marketing.
- Journal Of Social Inclusion: Managed and published in collaboration with the Regional Board of the Muhammadiyah Students Association (DPD IMM) of the Special Region of Yogyakarta (DIY). This journal serves as a scholarly platform to accommodate critical ideas, research findings, and conceptual studies surrounding social inclusion, grassroots movements, and socio-religious dynamics.
- Jurnal Riset dan Teknologi IMM: A dedicated dissemination platform focusing on the development of innovation, research, and applied technology.

Visibility and Indexing To ensure maximum visibility and the broad dissemination of knowledge, the journals under MD Publisher are integrated and indexed by reputable scientific databases, including Google Schotar, Garuda, Dimensions, Index Copernicus International, PKP Index, and are continually developing towards the highest global indexations such as Scopus.

We cordially invite academics, researchers, and thought leaders worldwide to collaborate and publish their most impactful work with MD Publisher.
